MIND

The mind of Jonas, described as a mental mess that contains the logical processes behind his thoughts/ideas.

The brains floating around the city are the cells of inspiration that bleed the analogy of pain and beauty.

The mind is full of ideas, unable to contain a quiet mindset but rather always balanced within the danger.

BODY

The body, described as an oasis that holds the mysterious and optimistic qualities as a whole. Finding the cleanliness and organized concept of the body can bring a peaceful state to the mind and spirit.

The panther seen as a lurking figure that holds in its fierce qualities as a way to manipulate and find truth in its nature.

SPIRIT

The spirit of Jonas, perceived as an infinite void of energy. Using one's internal innovative qualities to understand and predict the best way of spirit. The spirit found as an internal warmth of emotion and feeling that finds its connection in the nature of life.

Finding belief in the beyond that is not yet completely understood.
